Circle One

The diagram features a 10x10 grid. A large circle is drawn across the grid, spanning from the second column to the eighth column and from the second row to the eighth row. Below the circle, a rectangular area is shaded gray, extending from the second column to the sixth column and from the eighth row to the bottom of the grid. In the top-left corner of the grid, the text 'Circle One' is written above three vertical bars of increasing height, each with a dot at the top.
